The 2021 Interline Festival

It is a pleasure to announce that the minimum number of participants required to proceed with this exciting package that was especially created for WACA has now been surpassed and so the event will go ahead as planned. As an added incentive to register, the registration deadline and deposit of USD 300.00 have now been extended to 17 September with the balance due by 30 September.

As a further reminder, the Festival is scheduled to take place from 17–22 October in the 5-Star Hotel Al Bandar Arjaan by Rotana – Dubai Creek: www.rotana.com/arjaanhotelapartments/unitedarabemirates/dubai/albandararjaanbyrotana. The package brochure is again attached with the package costs confirmed having reached the minimum number of participants.

Obituaries

The Sri Lanka Interline Club has announced the sad passing of its past President, Zulki Hameed, on 20 August. He was considered a true gentleman who did great things for the Club in its formative years. May his soul rest in eternal peace.

Vancouver Interline Club member, Ann Senko and the Club's president, Freddie Whiting, have sent messages advising that Ron Read sadly passed away on 14 August. Ron was the husband of the late WACA Member of Honour, Sheila Read, who lost her battle with lung cancer last March. Ron attended many WACA events over a period of many years and will be well known to many members.

KEEP WELL. STAY SAFE.

Yours in interlining,

Keith Miller
